Part A Reading a short text

You may find the following website useful:

<https://www.naturalreaders.com/online/>

My dad and I watch films together every Friday night. Where's the popcorn? My mum and sister often bake cakes together. Luckily, they're always willing to share.

I like playing video games with Uncle Sam and his girlfriend because I always beat them. Here is my Aunt Mary with her new baby. Look at those chubby cheeks!

My neighbours have an energetic dog. Sometimes he knocks me over because he's too excited to see me.

When I want to take a break from doing homework, I actually like cleaning the floor...shh, it's a secret.

Hello! My name is Sarah Wong and I'm 13 years old. I have a fringe and I wear glasses. I am an only child.

I like to post videos about simple science experiments online. I usually post one video every week. I have 10,000 subscribers on my channel. Most of them think I'm smart. Some of them think I'm talkative because I talk a lot in my videos.

My other hobby is windsurfing. At the weekend, I usually go windsurfing at Cheung Chau. When I'm on the sea, I feel happy and free. I can jump really high off the waves.

Nothing raises our spirits quite like comfort foods. Comfort foods are dishes that make us feel safe and happy. These are usually the foods that our parents gave us. Comfort foods are rich and filling, but they are also simple to prepare.

When I was a child, my dad often made these sandwiches. First, he melted butter in a pan. After that, he placed some cheese between slices of bread. He grilled the sandwich on one side. Then when the cheese melted, he flipped the sandwich to cook the other side. Simple, but tasty!

Hello! I'm Samuel. I'm 13. I'm studying at Elton School. My school is in this historic building. Let's go inside!

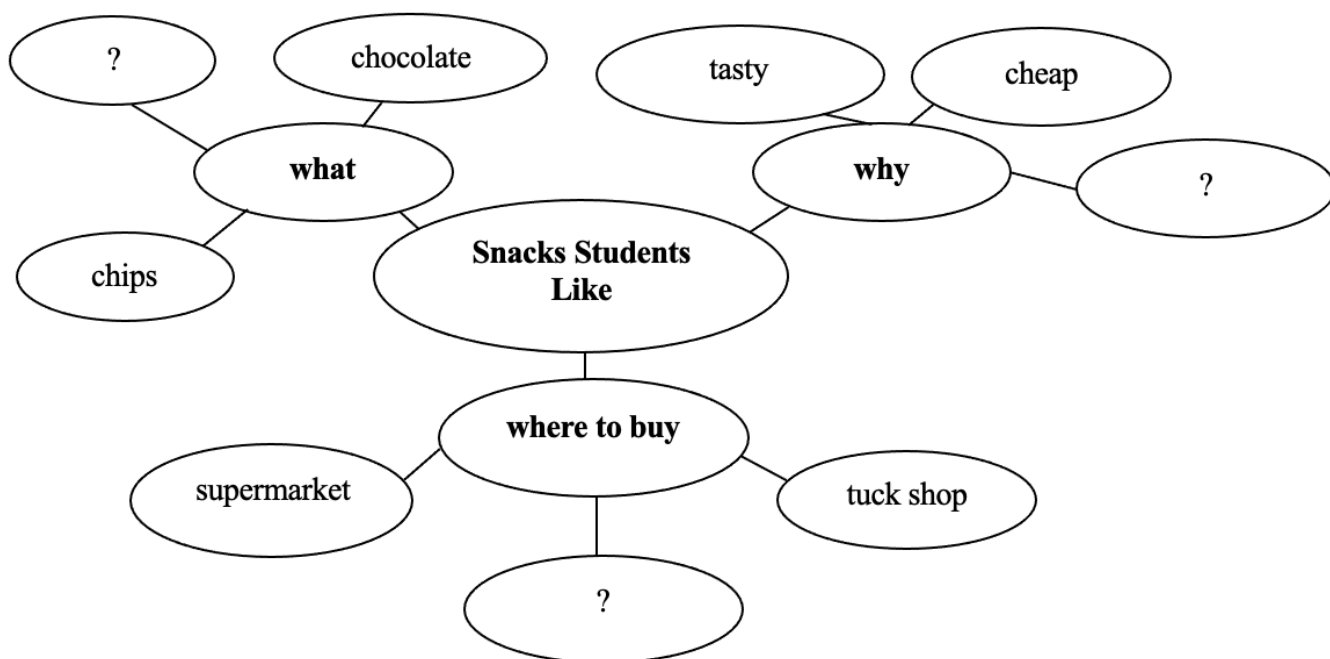

As you can see, most students in the UK wear school uniforms. Let me stop at my locker to get some books. OK ... Now I'm walking to the school hall. That's where we have morning assemblies.

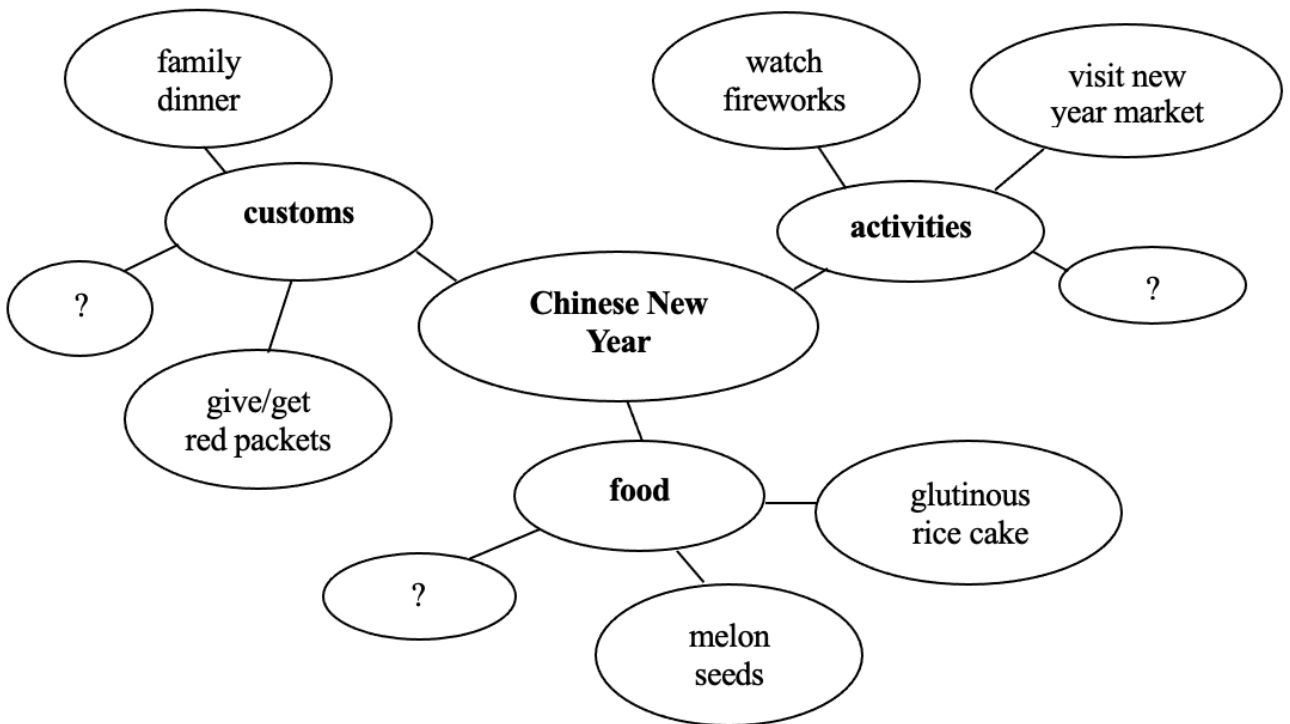

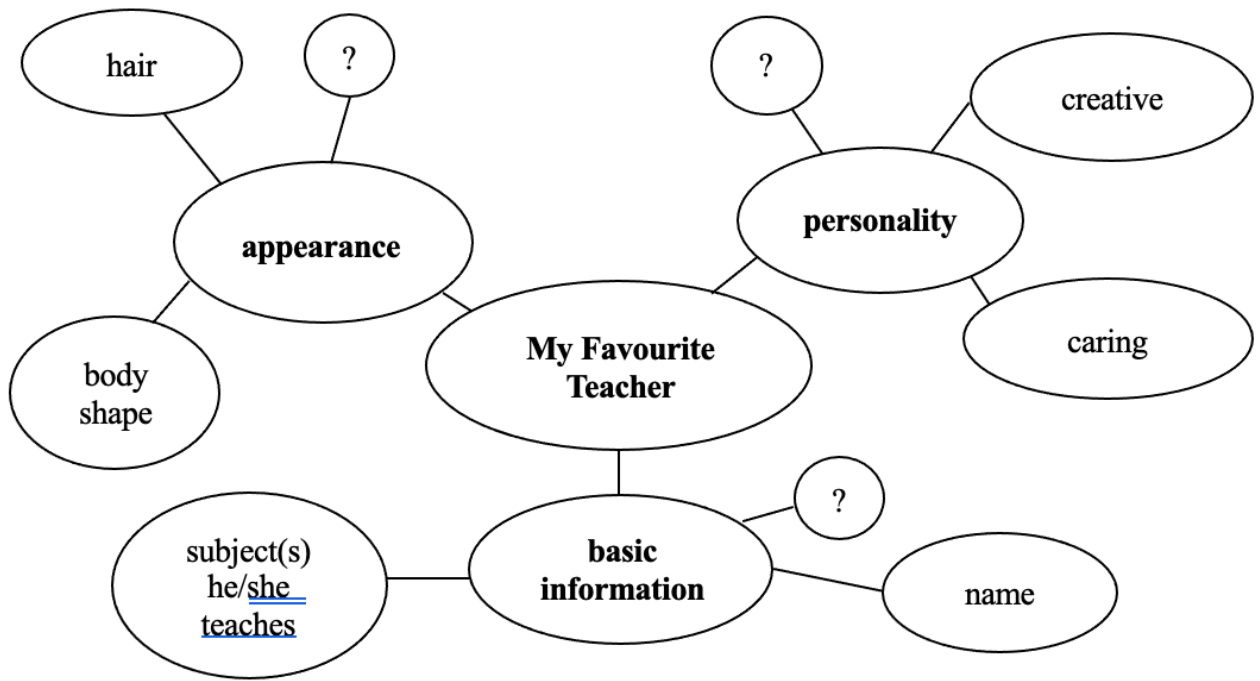

Here we're at my favourite place—the tuck shop. You must try the classic English biscuits. They're really tasty!

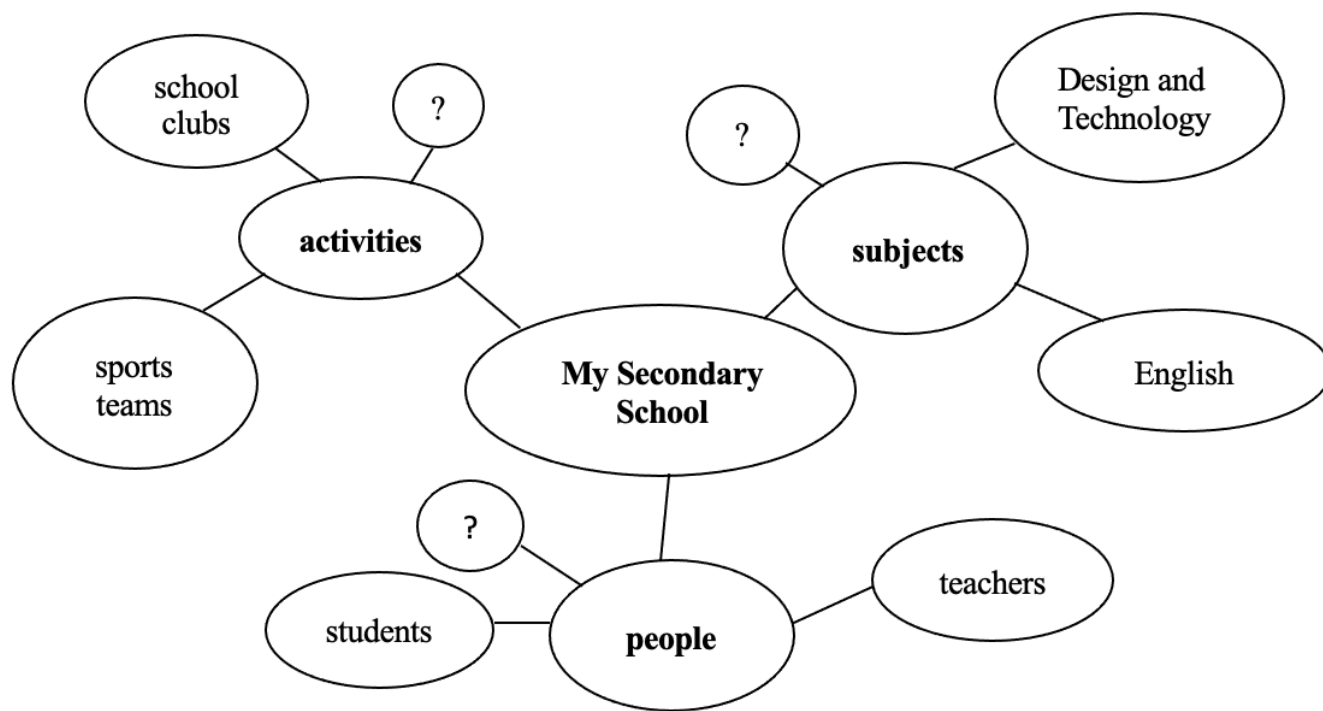

Now we're at the music room. I often come here after school. Why do I come here after school? Well, I'm in the percussion team. We practise regularly.

See you!
